Buckeye Traditions - A gold charm replica of a pair of football pants is given to players and coaches following wins over Michigan. The tradition started in 1934 when first-year coach Francis Schmidt told those wondering how OSU would fare with its nemesis from Ann Arbor: "They put their pants on one leg at a time just like everybody else."

"This is the first game I've seen that really puts hardcore OSU fans to the test... Big Buckeye fans will get a kick out of it!"

Buckeye Trivia Explosion! V2 lets players choose from various difficulty levels (Novice, Fan, or Fanatic) so the youngest Buckeye fans as well as the most die-hard fanatics can enjoy the games.

After playing the games, Mike Ricordati (co-host of Spielman on Sports with Mike Ricordati, WBNS AM 1460 The Fan) said "This is the first game I've seen that really puts hardcore OSU fans to the test. Perfect for the experts or wanna-be experts, Buckeye Trivia Explosion is fun for the whole family! Big Buckeye fans will get a kick out of it!"

In addition to the games, Buckeye Trivia Explosion! V2 has a lot of fun and interesting content for those who like Buckeye history. It includes an exclusive collection of OSU Lantern articles written following each Ohio State vs. Michigan game all the way back to 1897. So you can read eyewitness coverage of every game ever played in the rivalry.

You can also see how the rivalry has evolved by browsing through home game program covers dating back to 1901 and viewing over 100 game day photographs.

Another unique feature is the 2-in-1 double-play CD—it's a PC game CD and a TBDBITL music CD all in one. You can play the games on your computer and then put the CD into your audio CD player or car stereo to listen to your favorite OSU Marching Band songs including Buckeye Battle Cry, Hang On Sloopy, Le Regiment (Script Ohio) and more. So it's fun at home and great for tailgate music, too.

If you need a gift for a Buckeye fan this holiday season or you simply love the Buckeyes, you should consider Buckeye Trivia Explosion! It's new, fun and available for less than $20 at local stores such as Buckeye Corner, Cardboard Heroes & CompUSA and online at Amazon.com.
